

Dear Doric Lodge Brother,

Our Lodge has an informational Web Site for our brothers and the public and is called Our Lodge Page (OLP) which is located at this internet address link: <https://342-mi.ourlodgepage.com/> Some items listed at the web site are open to the public, and some items are for members only if they have set up an account at the site and are signed in.

For those lodge brothers who have set up an account at this site, which is easy to do, they have access to many items which are for site members only. Members of this site can see items that have been listed for site members (lodge brothers) only which include: some of calendar events are listed for only members, only members can RSVP events which the Lodge can receive a better count of those attending for planning purposes, some files and documents are for members only, these members will receive special email notices of Doric's events or news keeping informed and these members will receive a weekly email notice of events of the district lodges where they can plan out their participation with information being provided. Members of the web site can also pay their annual lodge dues at the site by credit card. There is also an Our Lodge Page phone App available which has many of these services and additional services available to members including they can call or email other Lodge members directly from the phone App (using their phones' default email and phone Apps) and these services are available to brothers if they set up an Our Lodge Page account.

You are receiving this because our records have indicated you do not have an account with the Lodges web site Our Lodge Page, you are not a member of the site. We would like to offer you the opportunity to join the Lodges Web Site and have these additional services available to you as a brother of the lodge. We are providing this informational email to assist our members if they would like to have these services and join the other brothers. We are providing the following information on how you can create the account and join the brothers at the web site.

We have about once a year have sent you an invitation in a separate email from the site. Please join us and take a minute to set up your profile to be a member.
